

Collects

Here at Cornerstone Church Grays we recognise there is much which is valuable in our Anglican heritage and want to make use of the best of this heritage in our own life together. Collects are set prayers that Anglicans have prayed throughout the centuries and often pray together on a particular Sunday.

We do this because:

- There is an encouragement in praying alongside with thousands upon thousands of other Christians around the globe.
- Collects have been thought through and are useful models of how we can pray.
- Collects pray about a wide range of areas and as a result using collects encourages us to pray for a broad range of subjects.

As a result, an individual leading intercessions in a service may choose to include a Collect from the Book of Common Prayer which are listed in this document.

This document details when a collect should be used and the actual collect. Look for the correct year, month and date.

The collects in the Book of Common Prayer were sourced here:

ALMIGHTY God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.	BLESSED Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.	O LORD, raise up your power and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness, we are sore let and hindered in running the race that is set before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us; through the satisfaction of your Son our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be honour and glory, world without end.
